ANBF AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL BOXING FEDERATION
SUPER FEATHERWEIGHT TITLE.
Albert Nolan V Daniel Carr.

This Bout was the Main Event on the great Paul Nasari Promotion which was held at the Sydney Revesby Workers Club on September 2 Nd. As with many Bouts in present times both Boxers were in procession of fairly small Professional Boxing experience, however both looked as if they were ready for action. From the first Bell both boxers sprang into action, with Carr seeming to be in control by a slight margin. The action continued with what could be referred to as a see saw Bout for the entire 10 Rounds. The advantage went back and forth round after round and the crowd were on their feet with excitement and chanting support for both participants.

Although much of the action was up against the ropes neither slowed for the entire journey and when Nolan found himself with his back on the ropes he continued to punch aggressively, however Carr was moving up for the full journey and seemed to have a great deal of crowd support. Neither Boxer let up for the journey and when the final bell rang the excitement continued amongst the large crowd.
In my humble opinion this would have to be ranked very highly in Bout of the Year.

When the scores were announced the decision was a Split Draw, one Judge had it even while the other two had the Bout slightly in favour for alternate Boxers.
One can think a Return Bout would be a complete sell out, however a rest would be recommended for each Boxer before future activity is decided on.
